

CDG Transition Requirements / Notice for ISO 9001:2015

The International Accreditation Forum (IAF) and the ISO Committee on Conformity Assessment (CASCO) have agreed to a three-year transition period from the publication date of ISO 9001:2015 (15/09/2015). CDG Certification Ltd being an accredited certification registrar will follow the same time period with following conditions: -

- Existing clients certified to ISO 9001:2008 should upgrade their QMS to ISO 9001:2015 before laps of transition period.
  - CDG will except new application for ISO 9001:2008 certification till 30th July 2016 & after this date new application for ISO 9001:2008 will not be accepted.
  - In the event an organization applies for ISO 9001:2008 certification, organization will have to upgrade to ISO 9001:2015 before laps of transition period.
  - Existing certified clients may contact CDG for transition to ISO 9001:2015 & transition audit will be done along with next surveillance audit due (After 30th July 2016).
  - In terms of costs, any client transition to ISO 9001:2015 through their normal surveillance cycle then there will be no additional costs, other than for a minimal cost for a new certificate. In case of client organizations opting for transition during Surveillance Audits there will be addition of one man-day in the existing man-days. (For example if the existing man-day for surveillance Audit is one day, now it will be 1+1 = 2 Man-days).
  - After 30th July 2016 Clients may contact CDG for transition even if their surveillance audit is not due. In such case CDG will charge separately for transition audit fee.
  - Client's are free to follow ISO 9001:2008 standard till laps of transition period & it is client's wish to upgrade to ISO 9001:2015. After laps of transition period it is mandatory for CDG client's to follow ISO 9001:2015 standard
  - Clients may go through(www.iso.org/tc176/sc2/public) for better understanding about transition requirements or can contact CDG Certification Limited for the same.
